

TORONTO GETS $3,000,000 MILL PRESIDENT'S CONDITION CAUSES CONCERN

FOLLANSBEE COMPANY SELECTS WORKS SITE; TO EMPLOY 1,000 MEN

Fifteen-Acre Plot in Jeddo, Just Outside Western Corporation Line of Toronto, Purchased by Toronto Citizens at Cost of $65,000--To Erect Plant at Once.

Toronto has been selected as the site for the new $3,000,000 sheet and tin plate works of the Follansbee Brothers company, it was officially announced Saturday by William Banfield, of Follansbee, W. Va., manager of the Follansbee Brothers' mills.

The new plant will be located on a level 15-acre site in Jeddo, just west of the Toronto corporate limits, donated by Toronto citizens as an incentive to landing the mill. The property was purchased for $65,000 from funds raised by popular subscription in Toronto and vicinity. Extensive coal holdings adjoining the mill site are included in the free grant.

The works will employ approximately 1,000 men and will include four 40-ton open hearth steel furnaces, four side-door ingot furnaces, one 1500-ton hydraulic press, one 20-inch reversing bar mill and ten finishing mills. Work will be started at once on the preliminary grading work to reduce the site to building specifications. Actual work on the erection of the huge mill will begin early in the spring, it was announced Saturday.

Will Erect 300 Houses

The landing of the big Follansbee Brothers' mill in Toronto means an inevitable building boom for the little Jefferson county town. An eastern housing corporation has arranged to begin work at once on the erection of between 200 and 300 residences to house the incoming skilled workmen who will be attracted to the city.

A half a dozen upper Ohio Valley towns made a fight for the big Follansbee mill when it was announced that the $3,000,000 plant would be located in this vicinity. Wellsburg, W. Va., Follansbee, W. Va., and other towns waged spirited campaigns to induce the mill officials to select sites in their cities. The East Liverpool Chamber of Commerce offered a free site as an inducement to bring the works to this city, but was told that this city was too far up the river to meet with the plans of the steel corporation.

Expect Industrial Boom

Many current rumors, alleged to have been from authentic sources, have stirred the Ohio valley for months with announcement that the mill site had been chosen. Saturday's official announcement from Manager Banfield, active head of the Follansbee company's holdings, sets at rest these reports.

The new works will be located on the site of an abandoned sewer pipe works and will occupy a level tract of land between the tracks of the Steubenville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction company and the Belaire branch of the Cleveland-Pittsburgh railroad. The town of Toronto, with a population of less than 5,000, is scattered along a level tract of land high above flood level of the Ohio river. The town is well laid out and presents admirable advantages for accommodating a rapid growth.

ENGLAND HIT BY WALKOUT OF 600,000 MEN ON RAILROADS

Nation Faces Greatest Class War In Its History.

MAY PARALYZE COUNTRY

Fear Strike Will Spread to Coal Miners and Transport Workers.

By Earle C. Reeves.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—England today faces the greatest class war in its history. The general railway strike involving 600,000 workers, which began at midnight, threatens to paralyze industry throughout the nation.

Premier Lloyd George terms it "an anarchistic conspiracy," in stating the position of the government this afternoon. He declared that the state would fight labor's blow with all the resources at its disposal. The premier appealed to the people for their support.

HERE ARE DEMANDS OF BRITISH RAIL MEN

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The main demands of the British railway workers are:

Eight hour day; war wage advances to be converted into permanent wages; equal representation of unions on railway management boards and an annual vacation of two weeks on pay. The government's proposal for a standard wage as a basis for further negotiations was rejected.

The whole "triple alliance," coal miners, transport workers and railway men—may be involved immediately. Every sign points to the backing of all branches of labor to bring a nationwide tie-up.

Already the strike movement is spreading. The dock workers at Cardiff have gone out. The transport workers will take a strike vote Monday. The vehicle workers will vote tonight.

England especially London, faces a food crisis. The fish porters at Billingsgate have taken the lead among the food workers. They went out in

SITUATION IN ITALY ACUTE

Wilson's Reply On Fiume Problem Creates Bad Impression.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The Italian situation is acute, according to advice reaching official circles here today. The government apparently is losing control over the army and navy it was stated.

Both the state department and the navy department were still without confirmation today of the reported landing of United States marines near the city of Fiume.

ROME, Sept. 27.—President Wilson's reply to the new Italian proposals for settlement of the territorial dispute with Jugoslavia over Fiume, was negative in tone and "produced the worst impression when read at the crown council," the Giornale D'Italia stated today.

Several alleged versions of President Wilson's message replying to the new Italian proposals for settlement of the Fiume trouble were printed by newspapers here today. The prevalent view was that the president stands upon his original attitude, insisting that Fiume should be internationalized and not be annexed to Italy.

The text of President Wilson's message was to be communicated to the chamber of deputies today.

BETHLEHEM STEEL CO. WORKERS CALLED OUT

Forty Thousand More Men Will Join Ranks of Strikers Monday--Situation In Pittsburgh District Unchanged.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 27.—The national committee of the American Federation of Labor which has the nationwide steel strike in charge, at its meeting today decided to call a strike of the Bethlehem Steel employees on Monday morning at 6 o'clock.

The strike call brings out all the organized men in the steel plants but does not affect the workmen in the ship yards. About 40,000 men are affected.

By George R. Holmes

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 27.—The first week of the nationwide steel strike drew to a close today with the situation unchanged except for claims made by the operators that more and more men are returning to the mills and that a resumption of normal work in many plants can be expected starting next week.

At strike headquarters it was asserted today that a complete survey of the situation discloses that more than 75 per cent of the total industry has been forced to suspend by the strike.

Here the situation rested today, with the rival claims irreconcilable. In the "big four"—Duquesne, Homestead, Braddock and McKeesport—the defense of the steel companies' position. It was asserted that conditions were better than at any time since Monday and steadily improving.

A full page advertisement appeared in Pittsburgh papers today, printed in English, Polish, Croatian, Slovak, Italian and Magyar and advising that the men go back to work Monday. The communication compares the elements directing this strike as militarists to the covets of Russia, the Communists of Hungary and the Spartacists of Germany, and is unsigned.

The strikers' national committee is

STEPS TOWARD MEDIATION IN STEEL STRIKE

Believe Negotiations Will Begin After President Returns to Washington.

SENATE URGES TRUCE

Will Ask Judge E. H. Gary If He Will Arbitrate.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Reports reaching labor circles today strengthened the belief that steps leading to mediation in the steel strike may bear fruit before another week passes.

Samuel Gompers, it is known, is one of the most confident of those who believe that definite negotiations for arbitration will be entered into soon after President Wilson's return to the white house.

White leaders asserted today that the senate investigating the strike is working independently to bring about arbitration. Senator Kenyon has denied the statement made in labor quarters that the committee telegraphed the president requesting him to take steps to stop the strike, but labor leaders today reiterated that they have knowledge that such a telegram was sent.

These leaders also state that the committee has asked or will ask Judge Elbert H. Gary just as they have asked John Fitzpatrick, whether his side will be willing to submit the issues involved to arbitration.

Judge Gary has repeatedly stated that the steel corporation would not meet the strike leaders or other representatives of the workers. The question will be put up to him, those intimate with the situation assert, of whether he and the other steel heads would be willing to meet a committee of strike leaders without the presence of the corporation. If he should answer in the affirmative, the strike leaders would not stand in the way of such a conference, it was stated. The strikers would make it clear before they entered such a conference that they will not submit to arbitration the issues of collective bargaining, a living wage, the right to organize and a 44-hour week, which they contend are fundamental principles laid down by the president's war labor board.

Mr. Gary has accepted the president's invitation to sit in the white house industrial conference as a representative of the public and should efforts to settle the strike before October 6, fail, it will be the first matter, it is believed, to come up before the conference.

Chief of Police Hugh McDermott will go to Steubenville early next month to be initiated into Steubenville Lodge, No. 25, Fraternal Order of Police.

EXECUTIVE IS SECLUDED IN PRIVATE CAR; WIFE IS NURSE

Must Have Absolute and Complete Rest to Regain Strength.

ATTEMPTED TOO MUCH

Presidential Party Is Enroute Back to White House.

BULLETIN

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 27.—"The president's condition is about the same. He has had a fairly restful night."

(Signed) GRAYSON.
That was the manner in which Admiral Grayson summed up the condition of President Wilson just before the presidential special reached this city. The president still was in bed and his physician hoped that he would remain there for most of the journey back to Washington. Complete rest was being enforced by Mrs. Wilson and Admiral Grayson, as far as possible.

By JOHN EDWIN NEVIN
ON BOARD PRESIDENT WILSON'S SPECIAL TRAIN ENROUTE TO WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Secluded in his private car, the Mayflower, and being given every possible attention, President Wilson today was enroute to the white house. He is a sick man. Just how sick may not be completely determined for several days. But his condition is sufficiently grave to cause both Mrs. Wilson, his devoted wife and Admiral Grayson, his personal physician material concern.

Admiral Grayson, who has been en route in one of the other cars of the train, spent last night on the private car Mayflower. He made the change so that he would be close to his patient should there be any great need for his services. Mrs. Wilson remained in complete charge of the nursing of the president, however.

The president has attempted too much. That is the plain honest fact of the case. He has tried his non too sturdy and vigorous physique far beyond its normal capacity. The inevitable result is that he must now have absolute and complete rest and quiet for days, possibly weeks to come.

He has had some rest during the last 24 hours and there were, this morning, certain evidences that the rest was having a beneficial effect. But until he can get back to the white house where he can have complete seclusion it will be impossible for him to get the nursing and absence from motion that is so necessary in instances of nervous exhaustion. The train is being run at a moderate schedule.

SAYS INVASION MOVE IS TALK

Cox Advise March On Weirton by Steel Men Is Unlikely.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 27.—Gov. Cox wired Gov. John J. Cornwell at Charleston, W. Va., as follows: "Sheriff at Steubenville expresses to me the belief that rumored invasion is all talk. I will watch the situation carefully."

It is known that Gov. Cox has confidential sources of information regarding the threatened march of workers across the line next Monday. It is not thought at the governor's office that there will be trouble.

The above message of Gov. Cox is in answer to the West Virginia executive's telegram regarding the threatened march on Weirton, W. Va., by Steubenville steel workers Monday in an effort to organize employees of the Weirton Steel Co.

VERDICT OF CORONER ON WEYBRECHT DINNER

Findings, Announced Friday Night, Blame Olives for Seven Deaths at Lakeside Country Club, Canton.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 27.—Coinciding with the report of the coroner of Stark county, the state board of health today blamed ripe olives for the death of Col. Charles C. Weybrecht and six other guests at a dinner at Lakeside Country Club, Canton, on the night of August 23. All of the guests who died after the dinner ate olives, the investigation shows.

The verdict of Coroner T. C. McQuate, of Canton, fixing a bottle of olives served at the dinner held at the Lakeside Country club, Saturday, August 23, as the cause of the death of Col. C. C. Weybrecht, of Alliance, the honor guest and Mrs. Helen Sebring Garis, of Sebring, the hostess and five other persons, including the club chef and a waiter, was officially announced Friday night.

The findings, which include the report of analyses made by Dr. Spenser, Cleveland chemist, follow:

"After having heard the evidence examined the bodies, held post mortems and considered the facts and circumstances surrounding the deaths of Col. Weybrecht and others which followed their participation in a dinner at the Lakeside Country club, Meyer's Lake, Canton, Ohio, August 23, 1919, I find that their deaths resulted from accidental poisoning, and that said poisoning was caused by a bacterial toxin contained in the bottle of olives served at the dinner. This finding is based upon chemical

THE WEATHER

Ohio and West Virginia: Fair tonight; Sunday fair and cooler.

FIFTH STREET AND BROADWAY OPEN SATURDAY

Traffic Over Two Improved Thoroughfares in Downtown Section.

BRADY ALLEY COMPLETED

Rush Completion of East Fifth Street Improvement.

Fifth street, between Broadway and Market street and Broadway between Fourth and Sixth streets, were formally opened to traffic Saturday.

The two downtown streets mark the completion of the first step in city council's extensive plans for city street improvements. Brady alley, between Pawcett and Ravine streets was completed the latter part of the week, Service Director E. J. Smith announced Saturday.

Work on both Fifth street and Broadway was delayed when asphalt expansion joints failed to arrive on time. Both streets were paved with vitrified paving brick laid on a concrete foundation and covered with a 1 1/2 inch layer of concrete "setting". The contract for Fifth street is held by the Potters' Lumber company of this city and calls for the completion of the street from Fifth street to Vine street. Lawrence Allison, city clerk, holds the contract for the Broadway project.

Work on the completion of the Fifth street project from Broadway to Vine street is being rushed rapidly to completion. The old paving has been removed practically the whole length of the street and the concrete work is rapidly progressing up the Fifth street slope. The traction company has taken advantage of the torn up condition of the streets to lay new rails and ties along the thoroughfares. The Broadway project is completed between Fourth and Fifth streets and along the east side between Fifth and Sixth streets. The intersection of Sixth and Broadway is being denuded of its old paving and replaced with a new surface.

Delay in the arrival of fixtures ordered by the Manufacturers' Light & Heat company is holding up paving activities on Dresden avenue from the Horn Switch to Sheridan avenue, Service Director Smith said. New gas and water connections are being laid while the street is torn up. The street car company has removed its old ties and trackings and replaced them with new tracks.

Pending the arrival of the gas fixtures, George Patterson, Wellsville contractor, who holds the contract for both Dresden avenue and Market street, has started a gang of men at work on the latter project. The old curbing on the east side of Market between Fourth and Fifth streets, is being torn out, although the street proper will not be closed to traffic for a few weeks.

analysis and bacteriological tests made by Dr. J. G. Spenser, of Cleveland, Ohio, one of the country's foremost authorities.

"From the analysis and tests made, Dr. Spenser conclusively found that the turkey and other foods served at the dinner were eliminated as the cause of the deaths, and that a bottle of ripe California olives brought to the dinner by the hostess was the direct and only cause of the illness and deaths which followed.

I find, furthermore, from the evidence that the only persons who became ill or died as a consequence of the poisoning were seated at the table where the contents of the bottle of olives were served.

"This is a veritable occurrence is a warning to our households as well as to our food manufacturers and distributors of canned and bottled food products that the utmost vigilance must be exercised if such catastrophes are to be averted. The seeping of air into supposedly air-tight food receptacles is a menace that should be brought to the attention of every household by our health and food authorities, and drastic laws should be enacted and enforced to safeguard the public in the preparation of food in our factories, with severe penalties for laxity or neglect and certain objectionable methods of preserving foods should be stopped to prevent occurrences such as this.

EXECUTIVE

He is in order that there shall be a minimum of jarring to the chief executive. And in his state room in his private car he is propped up and sustained by pillows and made as comfortable as is possible under the circumstances.

The president's condition is not alarming. Dr. Grayson has made that very plain in order to have no rumors that he has suffered a complete nervous breakdown. But the doctor, who knows the president's physical condition better than any other living person, very frankly says that only complete rest for some time will restore his distinguished patient sufficiently for him to resume charge of the perplexing affairs that now confront the nation.

Plans for the president to confer with the senators leading the fight for confirmation of the treaty of Versailles have been abandoned. So have all suggestions for his and Mrs. Wilson's participation in the welcome to King Albert of Belgium and Queen Elizabeth when they reach New York on next Friday afternoon. In fact, every official function and engagement that had been made or suggested for the president for the coming two or three weeks has been called off. He is to have absolute rest and quiet.

For the present Mr. Wilson will remain at the white house. It is entirely possible that later on he will go to some secluded spot where he can get light exercise in the open air and be free from all interference. But for the next few days after he reaches Washington it is the intention of Admiral Grayson to keep his patient in the white house where everything that may be needed for his comfort or his care will be close at hand and available at an instant's notice.

scheduled to meet here to take up, among other things, the question of ordering an immediate walkout of the workers in the Bethlehem steel plants, numbering approximately 35,000. There appears little doubt but that the strike will be ordered in view of E. I. Grace's unequivocal refusal to deal with the committee.

A coroner's inquest has determined that Fannie Sellens, a woman organizer for the United Mine Workers, was shot and killed "while an attack was being made on Deputy Sheriff during a riot." A picture of Mrs. Sellens was shown to the senate committee in Washington by John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the national committee, who asserted that she was "murdered by the steel corporations gunmen."

There was much conflicting testimony at the coroner's hearing.

The meeting of the strikers' national committee got under way at the labor temple shortly before 11 o'clock. John Fitzpatrick, of Chicago, who returned from Washington, presided.

sympathy, refusing to load fishing barges.

Sir Eric Geddes, minister of transport, went into conference with Premier Lloyd George shortly after noon.

The government has suspended demobilization of the army and soldiers leaves of absence, but it was stated this morning that there "is no present intention of operating trains with soldiers."

King George who has been spending a vacation at Balmoral castle, in Scotland, has left hurriedly for London by motor car.

The railway strike went into effect on schedule time at midnight.

The morning rush hour found all of the suburban trains on the main and local lines running into the city tied up and tremendous congestion developed.

Street cars were quickly jammed to overflowing and thousands of workers living in the western suburbs, which were without cars entirely were forced to walk to work. Some trudged six miles and more. All the milk train service was stopped entirely and the railway mail service was tied up.

The government is concentrating every facility at its command to maintain all possible traffic and to fight the strikers "to a finish."

The strikers will hold a mass meeting tonight at Albert Hall when J. H. Thomas, of the National Union of Railway men and one of the main leaders of the strike, will address the men. Thomas and his staff have established headquarters in a hotel with beds set up in their offices so they can maintain "a night and day generalship." The strike leaders express the utmost confidence over the outcome.

The postoffice department was evidently caught unawares by the walk-out and their plans to combat the strike movement were indefinite.

Airplanes will be utilized as never before in carrying passengers, mail and freight.

The Central Aircraft Company at Kilburn was quick to take advantage of the opportunity, sending out word by telegraph that their machines "would carry anybody anywhere."

"LITTLE MOTHER TO BE" IS HIT AT CERAMIC

"A Little Mother to Be" is the simple story of a young girl, an England county seat, and her patriotic lover, who was called away to France to fight for his country. The story is based on an actual happening in a rural community. The story is effective, and is entertainingly told; those who witness it feel that they have actually loved and participated in the throbbing story. There is a natural community interest and yet many funny lines and a good clean humor.

Miss Dollie Day plays the leading role of "The Little Mother to Be" in a charming manner. She wins her audience with her pleasing personality and winsomeness. Cherry, a regular girl from Wyoming and John Stevens the village strutter are the character parts that really put pep into the play, and are handled in a clever manner by Betty Brownie and Elmer Elsworth. Martha Stevens, a maiden woman of the olden school, who insists that nine o'clock is the latest that any man should call upon a girl, is an especially hard part to play, yet toward the last of the play she shows that real blood runs through her veins. Miss Eva Masters plays the part of Martha Stevens.

The ideal grandfather, Milo Stevens is an ideal character cleverly acted by Anson Varney. Leroy Bryant, a soldier and father to be is the opposite leading part and is played by a clean cut young man, with pleasing mannerisms, Lester A. Smith.

Letter From the President

To the Citizens of East Liverpool and Vicinity:

Having been directly instrumental in organizing the Crockery City Oil & Gas Co., a little more than one year ago I can speak authoritatively as to what the company has done up to this time and what it absolutely guarantees to do.

An 8 per cent dividend was paid to all stockholders on Dec. 20, 1918, and another 8 per cent dividend will be paid on December 20, this year, on all stock outstanding up to October 1st, 1919.

Furthermore; I can give absolute assurance in the name of the company, that if all of our stock is subscribed for, that the company will pay all of the money thus subscribed BACK in DIVIDENDS in not less than four years, dating from January 1, 1920; and if our new production is as good as we expect it to be, we will pay this money back in a still shorter period.

Now what does that mean to you? It means that you will still own your stock and will continue to share in the dividends of the company, from the present wells and any new wells or properties the company may acquire.

We may be able to pay a dividend of 100 per cent in six months time; of course this depends on how large the first of the new wells comes in.

I started out to make the Crockery City Oil & Gas Co., one of the best in this section of the state and I mean to do it, and I will do it by truthful and honest business methods; I would not ask you to invest your money in stock in our company on any other basis.

The following gentlemen are in position to know what I can do and I desire to refer you to them: Officials of the Potters Lumber Company, of this city; the Cook Anderson Company, Beaver, Pa.; Mr. Erskine M. Sunderland, architect and engineer, Department of Interior, Washington, D. C.; Mr. Lee Ulry, Supt. of Construction for U. S. Treasury Department, at Grate Falls, Montana; Mr. T. R. Maul, Supt. of Construction, U. S. Treasury Department, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. Herbert Huntington, Supt. of Construction, U. S. Treasury Department, Denver, Col.

As a closing word I wish to say our drillers are now working and the time to subscribe for stock in the Crockery City Oil & Gas Co., is now. It will be too late to buy this stock at par, $25 per share, when the drillers have reached the sand. All stock is fully paid and non-assessable. I recommend this stock to any one that wants a safe and good investment in oil.

Very truly yours,

KEEP STREETS CLEAN.

"Clean out the alleys" is the cry in a couple of Illinois towns. In one of them the citizens had been clamoring for a more efficient street-cleaning system. The mayor thereupon undertook a little tour of investigation. He found a great deal of waste paper blowing about, looking dirty and untidy, gathering in corners and giving whole blocks a slovenly appearance. He hunted for the source of the disorder and found that business men were dumping quantities of waste paper in the alleys back of business blocks.

The other town has suffered from the same carelessness on the part of private citizens. Its street-cleaning funds are none too abundant. Nevertheless it could do the cleaning job very well if property owners would play fair and do their part by refraining from throwing rubbish and papers about in the streets.

This nuisance of waste paper scattered about the street is not only an offense to the eye. It is a menace to property because of the fire hazard it causes.

Citizens ought to take pride in keeping their own town looking well. It is a good plan to remind them of the fact frequently without waiting for an annual clean-up week. Keeping them clean every week of the 52 is the best way.

ANTI-FLU RULES.

The "flu" may come back this winter. Here are some safeguards against it, based on recommendations of Surgeon-General Blue and other health authorities:

"Do not sneeze or cough without covering the mouth. Do not spit promiscuously. Avoid persons who do those things. Avoid persons having colds. Keep out of crowds as much as possible. Walk to and from work if you can. Avoid common drinking cups or glasses and dishes that may not be well washed, even if you must carry your own luncheon. Promote the health generally with regular meals and other habits, open bedroom windows, frequent baths, outdoor exercise and liberal drinking of water.

"Don't neglect a cold. If you feel ill go to bed and call a doctor. If a case of influenza is recognized, keep other members of the family away from the patient as far as possible."

The practice of these precautions will not necessarily ward off influenza, but they will greatly lessen the chances of catching it, and will diminish the severity of the attack if you do catch it.

If you are not concerned about the "flu," it will pay to observe them just the same. The "flu" doesn't care anything about your opinions. And they will work just about as well in warding off other contagious diseases. They are simply common-sense health rules.

HOW ONE PLAYGROUND GREW.

The City of Niles, Mich., has a population of about 6,000, but it would be impossible to estimate its percentage of public spirit. The federation of women's clubs of the town bought an island in the St. Joseph's River. Then they summoned the townspeople to help transform it into a playground.

The men came with teams and wagons, and ploughed and scraped the ground. The children followed with rake and hoe and hatchet, leveling and grading, and trimming trees and bushes. After the island had been cleared, all sorts of entertainments were given upon it and in the town to pay for first-class equipment. The result is a fine public playground where all the people of the city can enjoy themselves in summer and winter. Lately the island has been deeded to the city, which will make further improvements, adding electric lights, gravel paths, a swimming pool and a dance pavilion, all of which are desirable additions, but which were a little beyond private enterprise.

All of the natural growth which could be left untouched has been left, and every tree and shrub is to be labeled so that the people may come to know their native trees by name as well as sight.

It is this sort of thing which arouses public spirit, makes life worth living, and the home town the best loved place on earth.

THE THRIFT SHOP.

The women of one thriving eastern town conduct a thrift shop. After the rent and fixed charges for operating the place are paid, part of the remaining money goes to the county thrift committee, which carries on systematic patriotic work, and the rest is evenly distributed among the combined charities of the district.

The shop itself is not a charity, although the things sold at it are donated. But the articles are sold at the lowest possible figure consistent with their value, and persons who find it necessary to economize in their purchases are glad of a chance to patronize the thrift shop. Most of the articles sold are wearing apparel or things useful in the home. Some of them are new, some have been used, but nothing is sold which is shabby or in disrepair. In this matter the thrift shop differs from the usual rummage sale, conducted for charity. Last year in 26 weeks the shop cleared $8,000, and much genuine good was done with the money.

Such a shop as this, where things can be purchased at reasonable prices, and which is carefully and honestly conducted, does far more good than indiscriminate giving, which tends to encourage shiftlessness and graft. It seems as if almost any community might support one to the advantage of a large number of people.

The Ten Biggest American Cities are quarrelling about their population again. The salient fact, obvious to outsiders, is that every one of them is overgrown, disorganized and nearly bankrupt, and pitifully incapable of taking care of the population it brags about.

After all, there is a certain fitness in the fact that the "stick" put into otherwise harmless drinks by experimental tipplers so often consists of wood alcohol. And it certainly knocks its victims out.

Horoscope for Today: This is a rarely fortunate day—for everybody who keeps calm, minds his own business, hangs onto his money and does a full day's work.

NEW YORK LETTER

By O. O. McIntyre.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Little Johnny O'Conner, one of the truest spokesmen of Broadway, has become famous as the result of the strike of actors. Johnny is attached to the editorial staff of Variety, a theatrical weekly that is that is to vaudeville what the Atlantic Monthly is to certain effete centers.

Johnny talks to Broadway, though the pages of Variety, in the White Way idiom. When everybody on Broadway was wandering around white-faced during the tense days of the strike whispering "Don't talk, don't talk!"—Johnny unleashed his glib pen and wrote what he thought of George M. Cohan.

Johnny writes in slang octaves, striking all chords of the humor of Broadway. He was for the actors and also he was for Cohan. He spoke right out and so tremendous was the appeal that one New York newspaper reprinted it on its first page and several others on their editorial pages.

Before this Johnny had been writing homely little items about the Flying McNabbs, The Five Hokum Sisters, Gitzle and Gatzle and Queenie LaMont and all the other two-day performers. Now he has had a dozen or so magazine offers to write in his own slang way on any subject he desires.

With Johnny it was natural. He is not imitating Ring Lardner as so many slang writers have done. When he calls money "sugar" he is speaking in his own language—the language of the Automat and the all night drug stores. He speaks of the actor as a "Ham" with the same loving thought that a father calls his boy "Son."

Possibly Johnny O'Conner would have been unknown outside of the world of vaudeville had it not been for the strike but now he seems destined to become a national character. His capacity for wit is the best illustrated by the following little story.

O'Conner came out of the Claridge grill the other day after lunch and ran into Louis Mann. It was the third week of the strike. "By the way Louie," inquired Johnny, "whatever became of the show business?"

Meredith Nicholson, the Indiana novelist, was lunching with Ray Long, editor of the Cosmopolitan, in one of those fussy Danish pastry places that suddenly bloomed in the Forties the other day. They were discussing their old newspaper days in Indianapolis and then Long turned to the time when at the venerable age of twenty-three he became managing editor of a paper in a middle west city. This particular newspaper was a kid of kindergarten, where anybody over twenty-five was looked upon as a Methuselah. One of the owners threatened to build a high screen round the stairway leading to the editorial rooms to keep the children from falling down stairs. Long said that once when a fire gong sounded in the street a new cub reporter jumped up and yelled "Goody, it's recess!"

New York drug clerks have asked for more pay. They get about $25 a week and want $50. They are getting little encouragement—and yet if they put up prescriptions with sledgehammers and worked only six hours a day they might get the raise.

The hotels are determined to what the appetites of their guests naturally if not artificially. Now that the cocktail soons destined for complete banishment in anuary, the hotels are putting in gymnasiums where the guests may exercise before meals and thus make the check big and snappy. The Pennsylvania has a swimming pool, the Majestic is putting in one and also a bowling alley. The McAlpin has a hand ball court and the Waldorf is planning an indoor tennis court. So it looks like it is going to be an auspicious winter for food after all.

WEIRTON MEN TO RETURN TO WORK

Report Says Few Workers Who Answered Strike Call Will Go Back to Jobs—Mill Town Quiet.

The small percentage of employees of the Weirton Steel company who obeyed the nation-wide steel strike order voted Friday afternoon to return to work, according to an unconfirmed report from Weirton Saturday.

Despite claims made by the steel workers, the Weirton Steel company insisted Saturday that the strike was having no effect at the mill.

The claim was made by steel workers that reports from Weirton showed only four of the twenty-six hot mills at the plant of the Weirton Steel company are operating and that only about 100 men are at work in the strip mill.

A mass meeting for Weirton workers was held in Steubenville Saturday night.

It was stated at strike headquarters that an attorney representing the national committee of the steel workers would go to Weirton Saturday to investigate complaints made to the committee by men who joined the union.

It was stated at Steubenville strike headquarters Saturday that employees of the Phelps Company at Weirton, W. Va., mostly girls, had made a demand on the company for an eight hour day and other concessions along the same line as those sought by the steel workers and that the company officials have agreed to meet with a committee representing the employees Saturday afternoon to discuss the demands.

The striking situation at Weirton is quiet. Sheriff J. Armour Cooper of New Cumberland stated Saturday that no trouble was expected in the mill town.

WOMAN INJURED WHEN WAGON BREAKS DOWN

Mrs. Richard Walker, wife of a Holiday's Cove dairyman, was severely injured while riding to Weirton in a dairy wagon when the vehicle broke down. Her son Stanley escaped serious injury, but Mrs. Walker was trampled by the team of horses and sustained painful injuries.

Auto Hits Bicycle
Donald McBerney of Weirton, while riding a bicycle belonging to Raymond Gardner of Holiday's Cove was struck by an automobile Friday. The rider escaped injury but the bicycle was badly wrecked.

Diarrhoea in Children

For diarrhoea in children you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, followed by a dose of castor oil. Mrs. W. S. Kunkle, Blairsville, Pa., writes, "I believe Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy saved my little boy's life two years ago when he had summer complaint that run into bloody dysentery. After giving him one dose of this medicine I saw a change for the better. Thus encouraged, I kept up the treatment and he was soon out of danger."

Big Lot of Hay Fever Jokes

But Kentucky Man Says—"People Who Belong to Hay Fever Colony are Kidding Themselves."

Wouldn't Be Any Rose or Hay Fever if Simple Home Remedy Was Given a Chance.

"Yes, there's a real NINETY-NINE per cent effective remedy for hay or rose fever," frankly states a druggist in a prosperous Kentucky city.

"But I don't expect anyone to believe me, because the treatment is so easy and the cost not worth mentioning."

"The annual crop of hay-fever jokes would be mighty scarce if people would get an ounce of Mentholized Arcline and by just adding water that has been boiled make a pint of liquid that will prove a real help to all who suffer."

"Many of my hay-fever friends tell me that by starting to gargle and snuff or spray the nostrils a few times a day the expected severe attack often fails to appear and in cases where it does show up is very mild and does not annoy."

"The Better Class of Pharmacists" who dispense Mentholized Arcline say it will greatly modify any attack even when taken three or four days after hostilities begin.

Go to a real live druggist when you get ready to make a pint.

ASTOUNDING DISCOVERY

A Simple Home Treatment Found to Fight

SPANISH INFLUENZA

Like a thief in the night came the destroyer of life and happiness. Almost a year ago Pittsburgh and other cities were suddenly called upon to meet the demon destroyer—Spanish Influenza.

The death toll ran into the millions, entire families were wiped out. Grief and desolation were everywhere. The plague spread so swiftly that the people became panic-stricken. Every possible medicinal remedy was resorted to in order to check and relieve the epidemic.

However, Bulgarian Blood Tea, the great herbal medicine taken steaming hot with the juice of half a lemon, was found to be the most effective preparation in many instances. Blood circulation became stimulated, uric acid and other poisons were eliminated through the kidneys. The liver became active and the bowels and intestines were cleansed and sweetened and the whole system strengthened and fortified to resist the attack of disease germs. Prepare to prevent the possible infection of these life-destroying germs.

Go to your druggist and ask for Von Schlick's Bulgarian Blood Tea. If your dealer is out of it you should have it at once. Quick shipment by insured mail will be mailed. Send for our large family size package. Address Marvel Products Co., Marvel Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Note—Under date of August 25, 1919 quoting the United Press, Dr. Royce S. Copland, head of the New York health department, predicted that the influenza epidemic will return in October as soon as people begin to live in doors again.

Miss Getthlen will be remembered in this city as a singer of great promise. Before her trip abroad she sang in the choir of St. John's Lutheran church. Miss Getthlen left Germany shortly before the United States entered the war and went to Paris, where she sang for the French and American soldiers under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Her mother, Mrs. L. G. Getthlen, left early in the week to visit with her daughter. Miss Getthlen will return to East Liverpool this fall for a visit.

Make Your Vegetables More Tempting

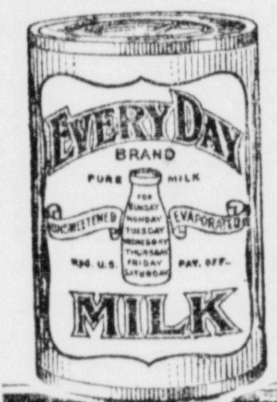

The hardest thing in all cookery is to make vegetables really tempting. But with Every Day Milk you can make them fragrant and nourishing dishes.

Cauliflower, carrots, peas, beans, corn, potatoes—every vegetable that is improved by butter is more improved—and so much more economically—by adding Every Day Milk. It makes your vegetables creamy, savory, and delicious.

You see, a sixteen-ounce tin of Every Day Milk is really all the cream, all the richness, all the butter-fat, of over a quart of rich pure milk, only most of the water has been taken out—and nothing has been added.

Be independent of the ice man and the milk man. Every day use Every Day—the safe and pure milk.

About Chronic Catarrh.

Chronic catarrh results from a neglected cold or from a succession of colds, that is, before you are over one cold you contract another. The inflammation at first acute, becomes chronic. When the cold is properly treated and promptly cured there is no further trouble. Parents often neglect colds contracted by their children and chronic catarrh, from which they never fully recover, is the result. To get rid of a cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is prompt and effectual.

OUTLINE PLANS FOR CLEAN UP

Two important steps in the preservation of the city's health were taken by the board of health Friday night when tentative plans were laid for a city-wide clean-up this fall and an order enacted governing the production and sale of milk distributed here.

J. T. Croxall, chairman of the health board, was given authority by the board to complete all arrangements for the city scouring. Dates for the clean-up and the plan to be followed will be announced within a few days, Mr. Croxall stated.

Under the milk order passed Friday night, all milk dealers distributing milk in this city must secure a license and are required to display a tag showing that they possess such a license.

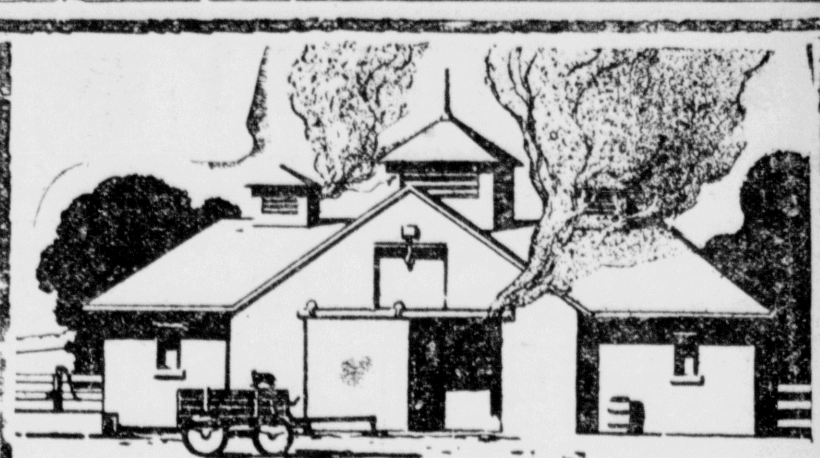

Only five cases of contagious diseases were reported to Health Officer J. W. Chetwynd during the month of September. There were 29 births during the month, 15 boys and 14 girls, according to Chetwynd's report.

In the eight-round preliminary, Kid Corrigan, Miami, was saved when Frank Mantell threw the towel in, giving Tommy Garry the honors in the fourth.

VETS IN FIRST
GRID CONTEST

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, attired in gridiron paraphernalia, will go over the top Saturday afternoon against the Monaca, Pa., football aggregation at West End Park. It is the first game of the season for the East Liverpool team and confidence in local circles is mounted high.

The Vets are all in first class condition for the contest. The advance sale of tickets indicates a record-breaking crowd. A light signal practice Friday night completed their workout for the Pennsylvanians Saturday afternoon. Before the game the team will congregate at the post room in Fifth street and march to the field in a body behind the city drum corps. The Vets feel that their team will be the best independent outfit in the valley this season and are asking loyal fans to support them. Difficulty has been experienced in a financial way so far, but, stated Coach John Coleman, who declares co-operation of the fans will relieve the situation to a great extent.

ALLIANCE HIGH
PLAYS LISBON

ALLIANCE, Sept. 27.—Alliance H's footballers face a different proposition in the game this week at Lisbon than in the opening game at Columbiana last Saturday.

Lisbon upset the "dope" in basketball last winter, when an overconfident team struck some real opposition and as a result went scoreless through half the argument and lost a lead that cost the game.

McGranahan and his crew are indulging in no idle dreams, but preparing for the real thing. Scrimmage in Wednesday's practice lasted for almost an hour. The boys pronounced the workout the best yet. Most of the sprains and bruises are ironed out except Bognar's knee, which has kept him off the field until this week, and Cleveland's ankle, which turned in the Columbiana game and noticeably slowed him up in his line plunging, so effective in the early part of the game.

The appearance of Jack Bulmer in a uniform adds another strong candidate for the backfield.

Norris bids fair to continue his stellar work at quarter, while the work Segel is doing right now is going to make some of the fans forget, for the present, some of the former high school stars.

The team will make the trip to Lisbon in autos.

"THE SPITE BRIDE"
AT THE AMERICAN

Would you like to be the bride of a man who had married you just to spite another woman? Billy Swayne, a scion of one of New York's oldest families, didn't love Tessa Doyle, the little dancing girl he married; in fact he hardly knew her.

When Millicent Lee had jilted him to marry another man, Billy thought the world had ended. He did not know what to do and so, as is usual, in such instances, he took the first bit of advice given him. Rodney Dolson told him to get married—immediately—before Millicent did, so that it would look as if he had thrown Millicent over for this other girl. It didn't make much difference who the girl was. He could marry her, give her a thousand and send her to Reno.

So when they saw Tessa Doyle at the theatre that night, they immediately decided that she was just the girl. Now, Tessa wasn't the usual type of dancing girl. She was young, fresh and as yet unsmirched by the grease, paint and footlights. She was innocent and good. She didn't want to marry Billy on the conditions that he named. She had a different idea of what marriage ought to be—something sacred. But her will was not strong enough to battle against those of Billy, Rodney and her dancing partner, Tricia. So she was married.

This is the thrilling story of "The Spite Bride," in which Seznick presents beautiful Olive Thomas at the American theatre Saturday.

"WITNESS FOR DEFENSE"
FILM FEATURE MONDAY

In her portrayal of the role of Stella Derrick in her Paramount-Artcraft picture, "The Witness for the Defense," which will be shown at the American Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Miss Ferguson is required in the action to shoot her drunken husband. The scene is one of great dramatic intensity and perhaps the strongest provided by the author, A. E. W. Mason, in his story.

Featuring "True Heart Susie" one of D. W. Griffith's latest and best productions, and showing an added attraction "No Mother to Guide Him," a side splitting Mack-Sennett comedy, together with the Pathe Weekly and Pathe Review, the bill for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, at the Ceramic theatre promises to be one of the best of the season.

Persons who have ever had to smile while their hearts were breaking, will never forget the performance of Lillian Gish in "True Heart Susie." In fact, many critics believe she has surpassed all previous work in her characterization of the heart-broken little girl, who hoped to marry her girlhood sweetheart and found him, instead, with his arms about a comparative stranger, whom he had asked to marry.

The story is an interesting and realistic portrayal of love won and love denied. It is centered on three characters, typical and definite in the domestic life of America, familiar to the residents of all small places and most large ones. The characters are such as might be met in any country village particularly in the Hoosier state, renowned for its clean, wholesome community life. Miss Gish is supported by Robert Herron, whose work in "Hearts of the World," "Broken Blossoms" and other Griffith productions has made him one of the most popular motion picture stars in America. The cast also includes Clarine Seymour, who is introduced as a merry young milliner from Chicago.

J. STUART BLACKTON
FEATURE AT STRAND

"A House Divided," J. Stuart Blackton's next feature release, which will play a three day's engagement at the Strand theatre, beginning Monday, is the third consecutive Blackton feature produced from an Anthony Paul Kelly script. The author of "Three Faces East," the current Broadway stage success, adapted "The Common Cause," for Commodore Blackton from the play by J. Hartley Manners and Major Ivan Hay Belth. Vitagraph is now distributing this special. "Life's Greatest Problem," the second of the series, was entirely Mr. Kelly's brain child, both the story and the script being his work. The third of the Blackton-Kelly association, "A House Divided," was adapted by Mr. Kelly from the novel, "The Substance of His House," by Ruth Holt Boucieault. "A House Divided" presents the same quintette of stars who are scoring such a success in the Blackton special, "The Common Cause." Sylvia Breamer and Herbert Rawlinson are again featured in the leading role, with Lieutenant Lawrence Grossmith and Violet and Charles Blackton heading the supporting cast.
